86th ANNUAL TOLEDO AREA ARTISTS EXHIBITION

TOYOHASHI CITY MUSEUM, JAPAN

JUNE 11-JULY 25, 2004

INTRODUCTION

The Toledo Federation of Art Societies, in collaboration with the Toledo Museum of Art, welcomes you to the 86th Annual Toledo Area Artists Exhibition. The exhibition features works of art created in the past four years by persons who have resided in Northwest Ohio or Southeast Michigan. Jurors Vince Castagnacci, Professor of Painting at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan and Tarrance Corbin, Associate Professor of Art at the University of Cincinnati, Cincinnati, Ohio, selected the 94 works from a pool of 733 entries from 268 artists.

This year's exhibition includes works from the collection of the Toyohashi City Museum of Art and History, Toyohashi, Japan. Please join us in welcoming the guests from Toyohashi who are joining us for the exhibition opening. In the spring of 2001 Toledo's Sister Cities organization approached the Toledo Museum of Art with the prospect of an art exchange. Because the Toyohashi collection focuses on work by their regional artists, the Toledo Museum of Art asked the Toledo Federation of Art Societies to be involved. A prospectus was mailed to over 700 artists, everyone who had entered the Toledo Area Artists Exhibition over the previous 5 years. Jeffrey Grove, Associate Curator of Contemporary Art at the Cleveland Museum of Art, viewed slides submitted by 74 artists and selected works representing 20 of the artists. The selected artists' slides were then forwarded to the curators in Toyohashi. The following artists' work was selected for the Toyohashi exchange: Pi Benio, Mille Guldbeck, Charles Kanwischer, Tracey E. Ladd, Nathan L. Longsdolf, Tom Muir, Deborah Orloff, Allison Petit, Lisajoy Sachs, David D. Sapp, Pamela Morris Thomford, and Kenneth M. Thompson. Their work will be exhibited in the Toyohashi Museum August 14 through September 20, 2004.

An exhibition of this magnitude requires careful preparation. The delegates of the Toledo Federation of Art Societies and its Trustees have devoted much time and effort in its planning. We would like to recognize and thank the following for their contributions to the exhibition: Don Bacigalupi, Director of the Toledo Museum of Art; Claude Fixler, Installation Coordinator, who served as liaison to the Toledo Federation of Art Societies; Toledo Museum of Art staff; Toledo Sister Cities; the Toyohashi City Museum of Art and History, and the artists, whose creative efforts make this exhibition possible.

We hope you enjoy it.

SELECTED WORKS FROM THE COLLECTION OF THE TOYOHASHI CITY MUSEUM OF ART AND HISTORY

We are proud to present twenty-six works by eight artists from our sister city in Toyohashi, Japan. These works exemplify the best of highly talented individuals who work in a variety of styles and media. They range from a traditional Japanese approach to modes of abstraction found internationally. Each of these twentieth-century works is from the permanent collection of the Toyohashi City Museum.

A selection of works of art by Toledo area artists—chosen by the curatorial staff of the Toyohashi City Museum—will be traveling to Japan and on display from August 14 through September 20, 2004. The Toledo Museum of Art is pleased to host this extraordinary exchange of artists and cultural expression from our respective cities.

Masaya Tomiyasu, Seated Woman, 1941

Recently, an exchange of art pieces made by local artists was chosen as an important step towards tightening and commemorating the Sister City bonds between Toledo and Toyohashi.

After careful discussion it was decided that slides detailing five works apiece from twenty artists would be exchanged so that the works to be displayed could be chosen.

Toledo artists were chosen from within the Toledo Federation of Arts Societies. On the Toyohashi side, works were selected directly from the Toyohashi City Museum of Art and History.

In the future we feel it would be excellent if the two cities can continue their artistic relations through an exchange of works produced by currently active, young, local artists.

After careful thought 50 works by 20 artists with ties to Toyohashi were chosen and presented to Toledo. Twenty six works by eight artists that had been displayed at the Toyohashi City Museum of Art and History were then selected to represent Toyohashi. A variety of genres including; eight Japanese paintings, nine oil paintings, one watercolor, and eight photographs were selected. The works combine to include a fine balance and broad variation of content. We admire the quality of your selections.

Finally, 50 works by 12 Toledo area artists will be presented at the Toyohashi City Museum of Art and History as part of the Sister City Exchange Exhibition, Toledo Area Artists. We hope the exhibit will convey an understanding of Toledo area artists and the concepts that they are working with to the citizens of Toyohashi.
